

FRESH PRODUCE

Excellent Opportunity in our Harvest Team

Our farm in Kent is 20 hectares of glasshouse and 15 hectares of outdoor crop, our production from this site has tripled in the last two years.

At our peak time we employ up to 400 Agricultural workers to help us pick our fruit. For our operation to run smoothly, we also have several key positions in our harvest team. This season, we are currently recruiting for the following seasonal positions:

Harvest Trainers

The essence of a trainer's job is to get information across to others in a way that helps them learn. That means being able to communicate verbally, nonverbally, and with patience.

You will be responsible for improving the productivity of our new pickers, teaching them techniques to help improve their performance.

Being a good Trainer requires active involvement and attention to detail that comes from being interested in what you do and caring about doing it well.

Ideally for this position you will be an existing colleague of S&A or worked as a strawberry picker previously.

To apply, applicants will need to have the following skills:

- The ability to work well with others
- Good organization and time management skills
- flexibility and the ability to think on one's feet
- Excellent communication skills
- Calm under pressure

This role is offered on a seasonal contract basis from March-October, however during the summer months, shorter contracts will be considered.

The rate of pay for this role is £8.80p/h. Overtime is paid at £11.00p/h (this will increase to £9.31p/h in April 2020)
